When dealing with loss, we need to put away our to-do lists and take time to grieve. We must process those difficult feelings to move forward.

Carol Staudacher's book "A Time to Grieve" has been a valuable resource for me. Only as these things happen can you can start to experience how different your life is without the person you loved and start to grieve for that loss. Dec 27, David

Each book focuses on what the person is likely to be experiencing at that point in grief—offering understanding, empathy, compassion, and hope. It was not going to happen to anyone I loved. Gail rated it it was amazing Jun 05,
