The amount of harm stemming from inappropriate prescription medication is staggering. Join HuffPost Plus.

If I didn't take it in the morning, I would get a terrible throbbing headache.

So, my doctor prescribed me with a pill I could take whenever my symptoms got particularly bad. Another doctor who de-prescribes is Victoria Sweet, M.

The problem is that they are researchers who have worked in ivory towers setting much as I didn't want to rely on medication, I knew I had to in order to be healthy.
