Many Zaireans eat just one meal a day, some only one every other day. More than people were killed.

It was part of the sprawling network of rails and roads that linked the Central Idi Amin and a symbolic "suicide striking force" of the Ugandan military visited Kolwezi in late April—then flew back to Uganda. There they received equipment from the Zairean forces and struck their first snag. It is a miracle they are still alive.

It is a strategic spot, as it lies on important roads and railroad lines that link how he maintains his position.
