The other entity within Bosnia, the Federation, has also been plagued with political divisions. This was a clear sign that the EU has changed its approach towards Western Balkans region and towards Bosnia from passive and incoherent to more active, committed, and united one. As a result, OHR has become increasingly ineffective, according to many observers.

European Committee of the Regions, op cit. Although Bosniaks were the primary victims and Serbs the primary perpetrators, Croats were also among the victims and perpetrators. This has raised jurisdictional issues in cases in which indicted war criminals hold dual citizenship.
