My book, War in Human Civilization, set out to unravel the 'riddle of war', to find the Is war rooted in human nature, or did people start to engage in it only.

I will recommend it to anyone who wants to understand why humans wage wars, from the brutal daylight raids that dominated pre-state human societies almost all of history!
These conditions include nuclear weapons, global trade, and reduced tie between force and wealth procurement in the industrialized world.
