Cortina de humo PDF Kindle. This paper joins in the controversy on the origins of the 'egungun' masquerade custom by investigating 'upo', a red carpet-like textile used for the costumes of the 'egungun' masquerade and for burials in the NigerBenue confluence area. European trading companies, with the support of the colonial State, maintained their hegemonic position in trade.

This paper's main argument is that theatrical performances are very much part of this development. This development is explored in a number of ways, and most especially in terms of the relationship between guns and their local history, Kumasi youth, crime and shifting patterns of desire and consumption. His fame rests for a part on al-Amriyya, a kafiyya made in an imitation of the Shamakmakiyya of Ibn al-Wannan. Ibn Kiran is the author of Risala bn Saud, a response, written at the request of the sultan mulay Slimane, to the manifesto of the Wahhabis.
