For him this differentiated work of the Spirit in creation is discernible only when it is realised that, on the one hand, the Spirit is not abstractly working in that which exists and, on the other hand, creation is neither simply that which exist, which was somehow brought Taufe aus systematisch-theologischer Sicht (German Edition) and is therefore dependent on whoever created it, nor merely the activity of bringing forth that which exists Welker a What is the 'spiritual body'? Here he follows an insight of John Calvin for whom it became clear that the resurrected and exalted Jesus Christ is present through the Spirit and that it is through this Spirit that Jesus Christ is not without his witnesses. TextsandMemoriesoftheLastSupper To answer this question it is therefore important for him to realise that Bonhoeffer wants to speak about God in the polyphony of life Bonhoeffer b, c, di. The search for the historical Jesus thus requires the constant clarification of the mutual relation between the first and second levels of multicontextuality Welker a; a These force fields are characterised not by an abstract homogenizing unity, 27 but by a cultivation and preservation of creative differences.
